

I'll bet you never thought the FAA would ask you to cut corners...

If you square off your turn when taxiing out for an intersection departure on 28R from EE, you will encroach on the path of inbound aircraft. Be sure to follow the gradual turn from N to EE.

